What to visit

SEGESTA

Segesta was one of the main cities of the Elymians.

The Archaeological Park main monuments, located on a hill, are the "Temple" and the "Theater".

The theater every summer hosts the "Teatro Segesta Festival Dionisiache".

Distance: 12 Km

SCOPELLO

Scopello, from greek "Scopelos" (literally rocks), is famous for its cliffs (i Faraglioni), for the Baglio (a traditional sicilian country estate), for its small center and for the "Pane Cunzato" (a traditional bread filled with fresh tomatoes, oregano, Primo sale cheese and olive oil).

Distance: 28.7 Km

SALINE

The Saline (Lagoon Saltpans) are located in western Sicily, on the coast from Trapani to Marsala.

A stunning territory in front of Mothia island, on the famous "Salt road", way to the Natural Reserve of "Stagnone island". The suggestive windmills are a wonderful landscape with basins, canals and mounds of salt.

Distance: 43.7 Km

SELINUNTE

The main attraction is the Archaeological Park of Selinunte, the largest site in Europe.

It is a huge area of 270 hectares, where you can discover the ruins of the ancient city.

Distance: 55.2 Km

CRETTO DI BURRI

The Cretto di Burri (crack of Burri) or Cretto di Gibellina (crack of Gibellina also known as the Great Cretto), is a landscape artwork undertaken by Alberto Burri between 1984 and 1989 in the place where once stood the old town of Gibellina, completely destroyed in 1968 by the Belice earthquake.

RISERVA DELLO ZINGARO

A path full of wonders. Rock and sea, stones and water, are all elements that create a mix of intense and delicate colors. The green-blue coves, the white pebbles and the reddish earth are all so intrinsically linked to the sea. The Zingaro Nature Reserve opens from 7:00 am to 7:30 pm. Even if this hike doesn't present any particular difficulties, you should wear hiking boots or sneakers, as the path is quite rocky. You really shouldn't go there in flip-flops or sandals, you would regret it. Distance: 29.2 Km

ERICE

It is a little village located on the top of a mountain, 750 meters above sea level, overlooking the Gulf of Trapani. Erice is a small and medieval village, with narrow cobbled streets, courtyards and churches. Thanks to its altitude, you can enjoy a breathtaking panorama and stunning sunsets.

Distance: 52.3 Km

CASTELLAMMARE DEL GOLFO

The gulf of Castellammare is a real amphitheater surrounded by Inici Mountain and by the clear blue sea.

Distance: 18.2 Km

TERME NATURALI SEGESTA

A charming place where you will experience the pleasure of a hot bath under the stars.

This place also known as “Polle of Crimiso” is covered with tamarisks and marsh reeds and surrounded by white rocks walls and pink travertine limestones. The stream bed is armored with rocks which create flagstones waterfalls. We suggest you to bring towel and sneakers.

Distance: 8.9 Km

Good bye!

Thank you for choosing us!
We hope you enjoyed your stay at our place and have a good memory of our wonderful island.

It was a pleasure to have you as our guests and
we really hope to see you again.
We would greatly appreciate to receive your kind review.

A person is seen from behind, relaxing in a hammock that is suspended between two wooden posts. The hammock is positioned over a body of water. The background is a sunset sky with warm orange and yellow tones, and the sun is visible on the right side of the horizon. The text "Thank you!" is overlaid in a white, cursive font in the center of the image.

Thank you!
